Tailgating Tour 2006:
The Best of the NFL

Press Release

Team Blacktop is coming to a stadium near you with Tailgating Tour 2006: The Best of the NFL! And they want to know- - what's cooking?

This football season, they'll be traveling to every stadium in the AFC, collecting recipes to compete in their Tailgating Taste-offs and "Giving Away a Grill a Game" to the winners.

Across the United States: Each Sunday this football season, as the players prepare to battle it out on the gridiron, local grill masters will be competing on the blacktop in Tailgating Taste-offs for the title of "Blacktop's Best."

The complete schedule of dates for this season's Tailgating Taste-offs is available at www.YourTailgateParty.com, and fans are invited to submit their best tailgating dish for the competition. Recipes will be selected by a panel of tailgater-judges based on taste, presentation, originality and regional appeal. The top three contestants will have their recipes published in the AFC edition of the cookbook I Got Your Tailgate Party Right Here. The winner will take home a NEW triple-burner Big Gass Grill from Camp Chef.

Last season, Team Blacktop gave away grills, kitchen tools, and cast-iron cookware to tailgaters at every NFC stadium. Their recipes, names and photos were recently published in I Got Your Tailgate Party Right Here! The Best of the NFL: NFC edition.
